THE BELLS BENEATH BRACKENFORD

Kael Drakeshield | Session 6

The Ashen Choir

Returned to Brackenford.

Using the map from Starfall Spire, located a hidden entrance beneath the bellfoundry.

The iron key from Mera Venn was useful again. It opened the old sluice access leading into the lower chambers.

Found several prisoners, including two of the missing bell-ringers.

Cultists were performing some sort of ritual involving a large stone bell suspended over a circular pit.

Captured a cultist named Pell.

Pell revealed:

- Othric Vale wants to activate the Gloam Engine.
- The astrolabe is required to align the mechanism.
- The bell is used to weaken the seals.
- The final activation will happen during the coming eclipse.

Pell also said that Ysabet Rusk had betrayed the Choir years ago.

We interrupted the ritual and freed the prisoners.

Othric appeared briefly through a magical projection. Human male, older, white hair, dark robes with silver stitching.

He addressed us by name. Not sure how he knew who we were.

He specifically looked at me and said: "The wizard's work was never finished."

Then the projection disappeared.

This is concerning.
