THE BELLS BENEATH BRACKENFORD

Kael Drakeshield | Session 7

Preparations

Met with Elira, Ysabet and Sister Anwen.

Ysabet explained the three seals:

- The first is beneath the bellfoundry.
- The second is beneath the Drowned Archive.
- The third is beneath Saint Orra's Reservoir.

The first two have been weakened already.

We need to reach the reservoir before Othric.

Niko obtained a partially complete formula for a possible cure to his vampirism from Anwen's records.

Ingredients mentioned:

- Moon-salt.
- Heartwood from a tree growing near a Shadowfell crossing.
- Blood from a vampire who has willingly rejected their master.

No guarantee it works.

Faelan and Ysabet discussed blood-based magical inscriptions. Ysabet seemed familiar with the techniques Faelan has been studying.

Karma discovered that the shadow moth from Starfall Spire had followed us back to town. It appears to react to magical energy.

I asked Ysabet about Eldrin Valtoris. She knew the name, but refused to elaborate.

Said he had worked with the Ashen Choir before it became what it is now.
